

Inspired by nature: Earth Day Poetry

Use your daily dose of exercise in the great outdoors to get inspired by nature over the next few weeks and pen us a poem. We'll share the best entries on our website and social media on Earth Day (22nd April 2020).

Where's your favourite wild place?
The Clumps? Your garden? Park or green space?
Do you love exploring woods and trees?
Or hilltops with their fresh spring breeze?

Do you hunt for sticks or bugs or fairies?
Do you use your phone to capture your memories?
Tell us what you like the most,
Alone with your thoughts or with family close?

If you enjoy getting a breath of fresh air,
We want you to tell us how much you care.
What does nature mean to you?
Share with us your rhyme, limerick or haiku!
