

A photograph showing three volunteers working in a field of tall grass. One volunteer in the foreground is wearing a maroon t-shirt and a white hat, kneeling and working with the plants. Two other volunteers are visible in the background, also working. The image is curved at the top and bottom edges, fitting into the overall design of the document.

Earth Trust Volunteer Charter

At Earth Trust, we believe in empowering our volunteers to make a tangible difference in the world. Our Volunteer Charter outlines our commitment to providing enriching experiences that benefit both our volunteers and our shared vision for a society where accessible, engaging green spaces enable nature and people thrive in balance.

Sense of purpose Volunteering with us means you actively contribute to our vision and mission and we will support you to achieve this.

Volunteer voice Your voice matters. We pledge to listen to our volunteers, valuing their perspectives, ideas and feedback.

Social connection You will connect with like-minded people, fostering a sense of community.

Skills & knowledge We are dedicated to providing opportunities for you to expand your skills and knowledge. We also realised your unique skills and knowledge are assets and we will strive to utilise them to achieve our objectives.

Health & wellbeing Volunteering offers opportunities for physical benefits, personal growth and wellbeing.

Recognition Your contributions will be recognised and celebrated, ensuring you know you are a valued member of our community.

Good relationships We prioritise building and nurturing positive relationships, fostering a culture of respect and collaboration.

Enjoyment Volunteering should be enjoyable! We endeavour to create enjoyable and rewarding experiences for all our volunteers.

Community of changemakers Together, we form a vibrant and passionate community of changemakers united in our mission to inspire people with the power of green spaces.
